Eighteen Rescued
B-29 Survivors
Rest At Bermuda

Harrowing Tales Are Told
Of Three Days Adrift
Awaiting Rescue

TWO CREW MEMBERS
LOST IN EPISODE

By SAM FOGG
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

KINDLEY FIELD, Bermuda, Nov. 21.—Rest and Thanksgiving were the order of the day for the 18 haggard survivors of Wednesday's B-29 Atlantic crashlanding, hospitalized in Bermuda today after their rescue from "three days of complete hell."

The survivors told how candy bars, rainwater, and prayers kept them alive in two life rafts lashed together that tossed on the mountainous waves.

In hushed tones they told a harrowing tale of how two of their buddies died, swamped by a sudden ocean swell, and how twice one raft turned over.

Unseen By Planes
With all but two of their flares washed away, they drifted helplessly, listening to the constant drone of searching planes above them in the heavy overcast. A number of times they saw ships which could not see them.

Even as they rested from their ordeal, the senior officer of the plane, Lt. Col. John Grable, drafted a report recommending changes in the B-29 Superfortresses in the hopes of saving the lives of other airmen. All B-29s have been grounded since the crash, latest in a series of B-29 accidents.

Two local hunters brought down Pennsylvania wild turkeys on Saturday. Frank Rudesill, 513 East Winter avenue and Robert Carpenter, 211 East Moody avenue, each shot a wild turkey in Bedford county near Roaring Springs, Saturday. Carpenter shot a tom turkey weighing 20½ pounds while Rudesill's turkey, a hen, weighed 12½ pounds. There were about seven more birds in the flock.

A peculiar weather condition was noted Saturday, when the temperature was almost constant during the 24-hour period from Saturday morning at 9 o'clock until Sunday morning at the same hour. The high was 41 degrees and the low, 40, the temperature varying only one degree.

According to reports from the bear hunting country in the state the 478-pound bear bagged by Don Morgan of the Wilmington road seems to have been about the largest shot in Cameron county this season.

One of the traffic mysteries to motorists in this area seems to be who has the right of way when an intersection is reached where there are stop signs on all four corners. When two or three motorists reach the intersection about the same time, none apparently knows who is to move first.

City recreation skating pond on Mahoning avenue will not be in use this season, unless some heavy rains arrive soon. The pond at the present time is completely dry.

First response to the 1949 Christmas Seal Sale, which got under way this morning, was received at 10 o'clock this morning, when a gentleman dropped off a check for the seals at the tubercle.

Miners' Welfare Fund
Trustees Face Problem

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—John L. Lewis and his co-trustees of the United Mine Workers Welfare Fund hold a session today which may influence the making of a new coal contract.

Major issue before the three-man board is whether to spend current revenues of the fund in the absence of a contract between the union and the mine owners who finance the program.

Lewis, as chairman of the group, is expected to seek authority to pay out some 13 or 14 million dollars received since the old coal wage agreement expired last June 30.

Had To Stop Benefits
The fund had to stop pensions and other benefits to miners in mid-September because it was running out of money collected under the 1948 contract. That agreement called for 20-cents-a-ton (Continued on Page Two)Kerosene Blazes
Kill Two Sisters

Exploding Can Sets Fire To Adams County Bungalow; Mother, Father Serious

CARLISLE, Pa., Nov. 21.—(INS)—An exploding kerosene can was blamed for the death of two sisters today, caught in an early morning blaze which destroyed their Adams county bungalow.

The charred bodies of Stella Hamilton, 26, and her sister, Shirley, 12, were found in the rubble of their home in Huntingdon township. The father, Frank, 46, and his wife, Mary, 44, were taken to Carlisle hospital in serious condition.

Home Destroyed
Firemen were too late to control the blaze, which completely destroyed the house.

They said the fire began as Mrs. Hamilton made breakfast. She reportedly coaxed the stove fire with kerosene. The can exploded. Officials said the elder daughter was fully dressed and made an attempt to get out of the flaming house but found the front door locked. The younger daughter apparently became confused as she watched the explosion and perished in the swift fire.

Panama Has
Bloodless Coup

President Is Forced Out In Coup Engineered By National Police

PANAMA CITY, Nov. 21.—(INS)—An uneasy calm reigned in Panama today following the forced resignation of President Daniel Channis, Jr., in a bloodless "one shot" coup engineered by the national police.

Vice President Roberto Chiari was sworn in as Channis' successor by the chief justice of Panama's supreme court after Channis gave in to an ultimatum from the police.

The prompt intervention of several members of the diplomatic corps averted bloodshed, providing a channel for the exchange of messages between Police Chief Jose Remon and the President.

Peaceable Transfer
The exchange paved the way for a peaceable transfer of power.

The coup resulted when Channis charged Remon and two of his assistants with irregularities in licensing concessions for cattle slaughter and bus operations. He demanded that all three resign.

When Remon was seized at the Presidential palace, his two assistants, Bolivar Vallarino and Saturnino Flores, took over police headquarters.

Most of the capital's residents slept through the night, unaware of the tense negotiations. Only one shot was fired, although helmeted, rifle-carrying police patrolled the lower part of the city and telephone communications were suspended throughout Panama City.

IRONIC TWIST
CADI, O., Nov. 21.—(INS)—Birth had an ironic twist today for Mr. and Mrs. John Gillespie, Sr., of Cadiz, whose son was killed in the crash of a B-29 search plane.

The Gillespies have a baby son, born the day after they were told of the death of the son, John, a former school teacher.

The child was born Saturday. They were notified of their older son's death Friday.

Colder Weather
Night's Forecast

(By International News Service)
The icy fingers of old man winter gripped Western Pennsylvania in a frigid spell today.

Snow squalls, windy and cold was the weather order for today, with a low of 15 to 20 degrees predicted for the district tonight.

Snow fell throughout a wide area of the northern portion last night, leaving a mantle of white from one to four inches deep.

Warren reported two inches of snow. There was four inches at Parkers Landing, two at Meadville, one at Confluence, and traces of snow fall throughout the rest of the district.

Seek Means To Force Release
Of U. S. Consul

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(INS)—The State Department is exploring means of forcing the Chinese Communist regime to liberate Consul General Angus Ward in Mukden.

In addition to attempting release of Ward and four of his colleagues from a Mukden jail, where they are charged with assaulting a Chinese workman, the department also is trying to force the repatriation of eight other consular employees and officials.

It was exactly a year ago yesterday, after the Communists captured the Manchurian capital, that all members of the consulate were confined to their compounds. Soon their radio was taken away by Red officials.

Communication Ended
Since then all communications with Washington have passed, without the protection of code, over Communist commercial lines. Many have not reached their destination.

Last May, because of these intolerable conditions, the United States closed the Mukden consulate and tried to get Ward and his staff out of Communist hands. Repeated promises of transportation for the Americans have been broken.

Meanwhile, it was learned that in the course of its study of the Far Eastern situation, a state department committee set up under Ambassador at Large Philip C. Jessup had canvassed a wide range of opinion on the China problem.

The Jessup committee has already reported to President Truman and Jessup will leave shortly for an on-the-spot check of Far Eastern conditions.

VIENNA, Nov. 21.—(INS)—The Bulgarian-born wife of an American businessman who disappeared behind the iron curtain Friday expressed fears that he has been arrested by Hungarian police.

The American, Robert A. Voegler, assistant vice president of the International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. of Jackson Heights, Long Island, vanished on his way out of Hungary.

His wife told American legation officials in Vienna that her husband hinted in a recent telephone conversation that he was being shadowed by Hungarian plainclothesmen.

Plane With 29
Children Aboard
Is Being Sought

Reported To Have Crashed
South Of Oslo, On Sunday Night

RESCUERS SEEK TO REACH SCENE
(BULLETIN)

OSLO, Nov. 21.—(INS)—Ground, sea and air rescue teams battled both the weather and the terrain today in a desperate search for a Dutch plane which reportedly crashed south of Oslo last night with 29 Jewish refugee children aboard.

Early today, visibility improved sufficiently to send planes into the search, but air observation remained difficult and ground parties had to push through heavy woods and a fog which hugged the earth.

Marcus Levin, Norwegian representative of the American joint distribution committee, said that only 29 children were aboard the twin-engine plane. But there was no other confirmation of his figure.

One search party reported seeing a light behind a ridge in the wooded hills near Oppgaard, 30 miles south of Oslo, but its significance could not be assessed immediately.

The suspected crash scene is only a few minutes flying time from the airport which would have provided a haven for the plane, its child passengers, three nurses and a crew of four.

Search Parties Handicapped
Bone-chilling rains, thick woods, and a heavy fog combined to obstruct the search parties, whether on foot, in planes, or aboard launches prowling Oslo Fjord and the Skagerrak Straits.

The passengers of the twin-engine Douglas DC-3 had been driven from their North African homes by anti-semitic pogroms.

Aero Holland, the company operating the ill-fated plane, officially declared the plane lost.

The last land contact with the plane came when the craft arrived over fog-bound Oslo and asked to be guided in by radio. Then the radio apparently died, and, according to one report, the pilot turned back toward Holland.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nancy Hosiek Goodsell, a sister, Mrs. Mary Hawn, and a brother, Charles, of San Bernardino, Cal.

WALPOLE, Mass., Nov. 21.—(INS)—An 18-year-old Brown University freshman was ordered committed today for mental examination following his confession he staged a holdup to finance a trip to Canada to kill the man accused of causing the death of his father.

WALPOLE, Mass., Nov. 21.—(INS)—A soft-spoken college student was accused by police today of a $55 holdup to finance a trip to Canada to kill the man who caused the death of his father by planting a bomb on an airliner.

Patrick J. Parker, 18, Brown university student and scion of a wealthy Rye, N. Y., family, was quoted by authorities as admitting he hoped to enlist the aid of the prime minister of Canada in his scheme.

Father Blast Victim
The elder Parker, Russell J., vice president of the Kennecott Copper Corp., died when a transport plane blew up shortly after leaving the airport in Quebec last Sept. 9. After an investigation, police jailed jeweler J. Albert Guay, 31, on a charge of planting a time bomb on the plane to get rid of his wife. Twenty-one others died in the crash.

I want to rest from a busy day, or read of the latest game, or I have a yarn that intrigues me much, but always it is the same. He has to play and he picks me out and he shoves his ball in my face, can I rest or read or lie down a bit, ah no, I must keep up his pace. He wants to romp in the living room, and dive from the top of a chair, he knows not a thing of an upset world, for him no worry or care. He's just a pooch that insists that I must drop everything and play, and maybe that's just what I should do, it's 38 today.

After preliminary treatment at the Georgia Street hospital she was removed to the Hollywood Presbyterian for surgery.

Fireman Dies In Wreck Of Train

EBENSBURG, Pa., Nov. 21.—A fireman was scalded to death today in the wreck of a Pennsylvania freight train on the Cresson branch of the railroad two miles northeast of Ebensburg.

The victim was Ralph F. Lee, 42, of Cresson, who was trapped in the steam-filled cab of the locomotive after it turned over on its side.

The engineer, Andrew Effinger of Cresson, managed to escape from the cab, but suffered a scalded right ankle, a sprained left ankle and a shoulder injury. The conductor and brakeman were not injured.

A broken rail was believed to have caused the wreck. Eleven empty coal cars of the 28-car train left the track, and a great deal of track was torn up.

culosis office. One other person, however, jumped the gun and got his check in Saturday.

Only one call was received today by cinderling crews of the State Highway Department in the entire county according to A. A. Martin, highway superintendent. The first call of the season was received from Route 19, where one hill became a little glossy and required the services for an ashing crew for about an hour. This is about the latest time that the crews have been called into action for a number of years.

Apartment dwellers in the vicinity of the Public Square had their early evening slumbers disturbed somewhat Sunday night as starlings and other birds again took up their roost in the trees of the Public Square park. The birds sounded like the proverbial anvil chorus as they chanted through the night.

A large tree on North Jefferson street to the rear of the Y.W.C.A., was removed by workmen over the week end. The tree's stump showed it quite hollow and a strong wind could easily have blown it over causing damage and perhaps injury.

Large crowds of shoppers on the streets on Saturday gave an indication that holiday shopping is already getting up steam for the coming season.

Wonder who raised the largest turkey in Lawrence county this season?

Campaign for the annual sale of Christmas seals for the battle against tuberculosis gets under way today.

Here's another candidate for the meanest man: the person who dumped a little puppy dog—about six weeks old—into the cold, wet street, from his auto at the corner of Etna and Atlantic avenue, Saturday about 4 p. m., and then drove on his way. Mrs. George Hawk, 143 Atlantic, who witnessed the incident, gathered the shivering little puppy and brought it to her home. She intends to keep it.

Robbers Enter

where there was a display and moved a rack containing the weapons back into the store. It was robbed of its weapons. Judging from the condition in which the burglars left the front display window, they must have worked with extreme haste.

They left via the rear door, and hauled their loot away in an auto. Tire prints were discovered in an ash pile.

Mrs. Stanley Majocka, who resides in an apartment above the store, told police she heard a noise in the store about 3:30 a. m. but believed it to be an attaché case in the place.

The thieves must have been quick "merry" according to Mr. Weller, who reports a street light shines upon it and railroaders are traversing the section at all hours of the night.

FIREMEN AID WOMAN

City firemen were called to administer oxygen to Mrs. Edith Taylor of 608 North Cedar street, Sunday afternoon, when she was taken seriously ill with asthma. They removed her to the hospital, and administered oxygen enroute. Fire Chief H. F. Steinbrink reported.

MINERS' WELFARE FUND TRUSTEES FACE PROBLEM

royalty payments by the mine owners.

They still are making the contributions, even though there is no coal contract, but the money has been "frozen" by vote of Sen. Bridges (R. N. H., neutral trustee of the fund, and Ezra Van Horn, former industry trustee.

A new operator trustee, former Federal Judge Charles I. Dawson, of Louisville, Ky., takes his seat on the board today and another vote is expected on the issue of spending current receipts.

Will Increase Pressure

If Dawson and Bridges continue to hold that expenditures are illegal without a contract, the pressure will increase on Lewis to reach an agreement with the operators so that welfare payments can be resumed.

Many thousand retired and injured miners, widows and children have been without benefits for the past two months.

At present, there are no negotiations in progress for a new coal contract. The miners, after 52 days of idleness, were ordered back to work under terms of the old agreement but Lewis threatens to call them out on strike again if a new contract is not signed by November 30.

Industry representatives expect the United Mine Workers president to make some direct move this week toward a resumption of contract discussions.

Best-known home remedy you can use to relieve miseries of colds is Vicks VapoRub. It starts to work to bring relief the moment you rub it on and keeps on working for hours... 2 ways at once! ## YOUTH PLANNED TO AVENGE FATHER'S DEATH POLICE SAY

$55.60, admitted the stickup and said he did it to get enough money to fly to Canada and shoot down Guay in vengeance for the elder Parker's death.

Today the full extent of the brooding student's desperate scheme was unfolded.

The Parker family, it was learned, is quite friendly with Louis St. Laurent, 67, the Quebec lawyer who was recently elected prime minister of the dominion.

Planned To Enter Jail

The boy told police that he planned to fly to Montreal, contact the prime minister, and obtain from him permission to enter the Quebec jail where he could stand facing Guay.

The youth planned to use the same .32 caliber pistol he bought only last Friday and used last Saturday night in the Plainville hold-up.

Corroborating the weird plot, it was learned that late last night a voice identifying itself as that of the prime minister of Canada telephoned authorities in Massachusetts, asking the whereabouts of young Parker, the nature of the charges filed against him and when he would appear in court.

His mother and brother, Michael, were notified at the palatial estate in Rye of the arrest.

J. Byron Welker was elected treasurer of the New Castle Christian Business Men's committee on Friday evening in the First Baptist church. Paul Fombelle is the outgoing treasurer of the organization. His name was reported in error as being re-elected to that position.

WOMEN IN AMERICAN ECONOMY

Although woman's suffrage was settled in the affirmative more than a generation ago we still hear it discussed on occasions although without the heat it engendered when the suffrage amendment was before Congress, and principally in urging women to go to the polls on election day.

With the Communist menace now looming larger, the importance of the woman vote as a stabilizing influence becomes more apparent. The average American woman is less inclined toward Communism than the average man, although of course, very few of us of either sex who really understand it want Communism to rear its ugly head in the United States.

Chief reason given why the American woman dislikes the idea of Communism is that she is a homemaker while Communism seeks to destroy the institution of the home as we know it, even to the education and control of our children. And, of course, Communism is atheistic in its concept and as a rule our women take more interest in the church than our men.

But there is a reason other than Communism why women should take an active part in American politics. American women have a greater share in our national wealth than we ordinarily realize. For example: women control 70 per cent of our private wealth. They are the owners of 43 per cent of the stock in United States corporations, and so far as our railroads are concerned, 47 per cent of the securities. And millions of women depend in whole or in part on the income received from these securities in the way of dividends or interest.

American women own 40 per cent of the titles of our 30 million homes and they are the beneficiaries of 80 per cent of the life insurance policies that are now in force in America. The American women purchased 66 per cent of the war bonds sold by the government and she pays 80 per cent of the inheritance taxes and 40 per cent of the property taxes.

This is not the entire story of the part the American woman plays in our economy but it is enough to show why she should take an interest in our politics and in the safeguarding of the American way of life.

DEFICITS WILL STAY

Optimists express the belief that when Congress convenes in January it will be so impressed (or depressed) by the federal deficit in excess of $5,000,000,000 that it will do what it should have done right after the war—cut spending drastically.

Opposed to that view is the fact President Truman has never supported less spending, but always more. The President is expected to shove at Congress a renewal of his domestic program which calls for more and more "welfare" and more and more spending.

These proposals will be alluring for their voting appeal. A budgetary deficit is no longer regarded as an alienator of votes.

In addition to prospective higher domestic spending, foreign affairs may call for a great deal more. The plan is to pour money into Europe until 1952 and beyond. In the meantime the situation in Asia grows more menacing and it would not surprise many persons if a "Marshall Plan" for that area were to make its appearance. There will continue to be high military preparedness spending for the United States.

Any successful effort to eliminate or reduce some of the federal taxes will push budgetary deficits higher. Proposals to increase taxes in a campaign year are not taken seriously.

All in all, the verities of the situation do not point to reduced deficits.

CAREER MAN GETS RECOGNITION

Oscar L. Chapman, a career man of the Interior Department for more than sixteen years, has been named secretary to succeeds Julius A. Krug, who resigned from that post.

Selection of men who have training in any department would seem to be a better policy, qualifications considered, than making choice for top positions of ambitious politicians or mere party workers.

The Department of the Interior is an important adjunct of the government, for it has control of timber and mineral resources, streams, and directs Indian affairs of the nation.

Secretary Chapman has indicated that one of the first things to continue to receive consideration by the department will be conservation of resources, a great need in the nation.

Moscow claims it is now the fashion center of the universe. The West, however, continues not to like Moscow's style.

Those government checks which go out for relief, bonuses, loans and a dozen other things make a checkered existence for the GOP.

Kansas man killed himself after shooting at a neighbor and missing. Couldn't stand the humiliation for such poor marksmanship, evidently.

If the bureaucrats at Washington wanted to give their last shirt to Europe it wouldn't be so bad. But what they are doing is giving our last shirt.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

Moscow has opened up with its expected blast against the Allied powers for alleged plans to turn Western Germany into a base for military aggression.

And in doing so, the Kremlin propagandists overlook what Soviet agents are carrying out in Eastern Germany in the way of a quarter-million man "police force" which already looks and acts a great deal like a regular army.

In addition, the Russians are dodging a major fact—confirmed by history—that Eastern Germany far more than the western regions always has been a fertile ground for militarism.

It is difficult but not impossible to differentiate between eastern and western Germans. The cleavages are not so great as between Bavaria and Prussia, for example. But it is something of a fallacy to regard all of Germany, from the Rhine to Poland and from Hamburg to the Dolomites, as a nation of goose-steppers.

Bred in Prussia

Those areas developed through the ages more in consonance with the rising intellect of France. Their soldiers may have fought just as fiercely in periodic wars. But the fact remains that elitism, militarism and aggressive leadership were born and bred in Prussia.

In modern times, Western German intellect has had the advantages of men such as Goethe, who lived in Frankfurt, plus the benign influence of great universities such as Heidelberg and Bonn.

In contrast with the cultured atmosphere of the western zones, the Soviets have under their control almost all of Prussia, the entire province of Brandenburg, all of warlike East Prussia and they share with Poland heavy-industrialized Silesia, the dynamo of all Germany's eastern wars.

If nothing else, therefore, the Soviets have a more amenable national character to deal with in moulding a new German nationalism and militarism.

Communist demonstrations in Berlin that have taken place since it was made capital of the East German state have been astonishing replicas of the Nazi days, with only the Swastika missing.

Goose-stepping parades of uniformed boys and girls that remind all veteran onlookers of the "Hitler youth" times and there is a general regimentation and appears to nationalist resurgence that Germans love to hear and heed.

The Russians have a further advantage in possessing the almost unbroken ranks of the once great German Sixth Army the surrendered at Stalingrad.

This army's commander, Field Marshal Friedrich von Paulus, returned many months ago to the Soviet zone of Germany with his entire officer corps.

All have been hard at work drilling and disciplining the communist-controlled police force. Underground reports which probably are true say that the men of this group are being told constantly that a German army will be born again and that they will be its charter members—just as Adolf Hitler formed his elite guard from the Russians who first supported him.

Another Point

Another point of possible significance is that the Russians, for the most part are making no use of old-line Junkers generals on the grounds they have lost much of their enthusiasm.

In their place are many officers who like von Paulus were singled out by Hitler because of their youth and energy, their conviction that Germany must rule the world and their willingness to follow blindly all party orders even if they defied military tradition.

The Soviet-dominated East German police force has been estimated at from 200 thousand to 400 thousand men.

Large numbers are former Nazis who fall into their places automatically. Long ago the Soviets solved the vexing problem of denazification. They simply dropped the query about former Nazi affiliations from their loyalty oath questionnaire.

Since the vice president got his wedding televised I hear one of our marrying families hired an agent to book all its future ceremonies.

They will sign exclusively with one net, work only with that agency and reserve all literary and lecture rights and the awning renting concession.

Now they're wondering why they never thought of it before.

But for a sustaining wedding the Barkley bride was a triumph for cast and cameramen and there have been numerous requests for a live repeat for the west coast.

We read in the papers the other day... about a fellow from West Newton, Mass., that went hunting in Ohio... seems he and his party broke some rules... killed some birds that were out-of-season...

Game laws protect such birds and the fine is 200 dollars per bird... This sportsman and his party were fined $452... fines and costs of court we suppose... Now this fellow would have been much better off if he had run down a pedestrian or two... Fines for that are not nearly as heavy.

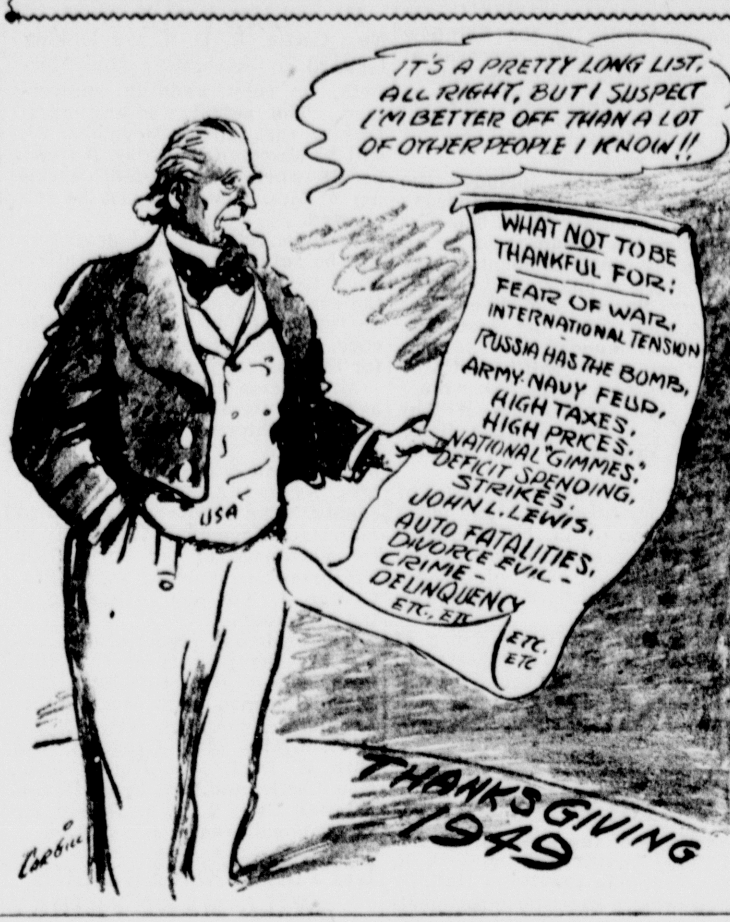

Down in Kentucky last summer a fisherman was caught with more fish than he was permitted under the existing game protection laws... for each illegal fish the penalty there is two years in prison... This fisherman had 16 illegal fish... 32 years in prison... a communist doesn't get that many years when he is convicted of betraying the United States.

Pollution of streams... water companies all over the country work night and day... making creek, river and reservoir water fit to be used by the public. Industries are warned about polluting streams... action really takes hold however, when an overdose of acid in a stream kills a few fish... An industry can be closed down for that alone... but so long as the fish don't die... to hell with the public.

Stealing government money... or blowing a safe open while the owner is sleeping... and getting caught carries a much lesser penalty... even hiring someone to "rub-out" your wife or husband isn't too bad... yes you can read about crimes and crime doesn't pay... but neither does hunting and fishing if you break the game laws.

We agree there is a need for game protection laws... but it seems that the price of a human life is rather cheap as compared to that of the wild life in our streams and fields.

Hazardous Trip To Belgrade

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Nov. 21.—The few foreigners who travel from the western border of Yugoslavia to Belgrade are given to debating ways and means of making the journey. They boast about adventures and narrow escapes from one peril or another.

There is, of course, Swiss air which flies in and out once a week. Every Wednesday the Yugoslav airline flies the same route and the Yugoslavs are now conducting test flights to extend their service to Paris and London.

But if you decide against the air, then there are two choices. One is the Orient Express either direct from Paris or from Trieste, Italy, which is on the Yugoslav border.

My wife and I had our sleeping-car reservations from Trieste. You leave at 2 a. m. and you arrive here in the late evening of the same day, which is pretty slow going for a distance of less than 400 miles. Then we began to hear tales about the so-called express.

Must Walk Outside Train

The one sleeping car is on the front of the train, the diner on the rear. Between are six or seven third-class coaches with no connecting corridor. So the sleeping-car passenger who wants to go to the diner must get out of the train and walk along the station platform to reach the last car.

Or, to put it more accurately, he runs as hard as he can since he has no way of knowing how long the train will stop at a village station. It may be a minute or an hour. If it's a minute he may find himself left on the platform as the train pulls out with all his bags. Other inconveniences and hazards were pointed out to us.

At this point along came William McClure, an adventurous young cameraman for Pathe News who specializes in hard-to-get action pictures in remote places. He was driving to Belgrade in a new 1949 Chevrolet with extra gas tanks, extra tires and extra just about everything you could think of.

Saw More Of Country

Bill urged us to come with him, arguing that we would see much more of the country traveling by car. We certainly did.

For the first 30 or 40 miles there are good highways built when this western zone was, first, part of the Austro-Hungarian empire and, later, belonged to Italy. When you leave that highway, you get onto rutted mountain roads of the kind that have all but disappeared in America. It was raining hard, a rain that was turning to snow.

Then we had a puncture. Bill fixed it expertly. But as he was tightening the last lug, the lug wrench broke in such a way as to be useless. That was one "extra" Bill had not brought along. Another puncture would mean we were stranded.

We made Zagreb, 140 miles from Trieste, in the late afternoon. The official government tourist bureau had no road map—that was one of the lacks which had worried

Tired of the dull, monotonous routine. The best of tonics is change of scene. Go somewhere else! If you're a doctor, grave. Toiling the lives of sufferers to save. Hearing all day the aches and pains they tell. Spend a few days where those you'll meet are well.

If you're a lawyer, and have had enough Of dry "whereas and the afore-said" stuff. Since where are human beings more than three. Strife and contention certainly will be. Get to a desert place, if one is known; But needing rest, be sure to go alone.

If you're a man of business great or small, Fretted and worried as are one and all. Troubled by problems many, get away; Search for a spot where children romp in play. Forget the government, the unions, too. And peace of mind may then come back to you.

"Killing Off" Sen. Taft Postponed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.

IT IS interesting—and perhaps not without significance—to note that the grandiose and not altogether secret dream which our leading labor politicians entertained concerning the political murder of Senator Robert A. Taft, which they had plotted for next year, has been busted, as they say in certain circles, "higher than Gilly's kite."

AS NOW viewed, it seems a particularly silly conception and the journalistic gentlemen to whom it was sold are running away from it as fast as they can, willing, not to say anxious, to forget all about it. The idea, it will be recalled, was that those now in charge of the political policies of the CIO, the AFL and the Railroad Brotherhoods are exceedingly smart fellows, indeed. In this planned murder of Senator Taft they were, it was said, for the first time exhibiting real intelligence, playing the role of "labor statesmen" instead of behaving like amateur political hams who do not know the score.

FOR one thing, instead of operating separately to achieve the extinction of Mr. Taft, they had formed a combination which was working with a smooth effectiveness not known before in the labor field. For another, with the aid of Mr. Truman, they would take over the Democratic party in Ohio as the instrument best designed for their purposes. For a third, under labor direction they had worked out a beautiful scheme by which in Ohio the labor forces would be amalgamated with the farmers, the Negroes and the Democratic organizations in the cities. This not only would be sufficient to make a political corpse of Mr. Taft but would be the first step toward the emergence of a genuine American Labor party along the lines of the British Labor party. Eventually, this American Labor party would take over the country. This was the dream which entranced not only the more ardent of the "liberal" columnists but various members of that vague and flimsy organization, Americans for Democratic Action.

OF COURSE, there was nothing new about this proposed combination. It has been a left-wing idea for years. One of its most earnest and eloquent advocates was Prof. Rexford G. Tugwell, who, as far back as 1936, went around the country exhorting along these lines. These were the elements to which the New Deal and the late Mr. Roosevelt patronage, unlimited Federal funds and pictures of the "more" well so successfully appealed. But, what Mr. Roosevelt with the Federal funds and pictures of the "more abundant life" for everybody was able to do is a great deal harder for these labor politicians, smart as they are said to be, in their vindictive campaign to murder Mr. Taft.

ANYHOW, even before they could line their combination up or get their dream adequately presented, it blew up. There were several reasons. One was inability to get a man to run against Mr. Taft strong enough to stand a chance. When Governor Lausche first declined weeks ago, they centered behind Mr. Murray Lincoln, long identified with the agricultural interests and holding a position in one of the farm organizations. The CIO publicists proceeded to give Mr. Lincoln quite a buildup. He was depicted as a noble fellow who could wield the labor, farm, Negro and machine vote into one irresistible force. But somehow the smart labor politicians overlooked one or two rather important points. One of these was that Mr. Lincoln had no desire to run—in fact, seemed determined to hold on to his well-paid post rather than relinquish it for a fight he might easily lose. Another was that two city Democrats, described by CIO publicity agents as "organization hacks" showed extreme unwillingness to pull out of the Democratic primaries for Mr. Lincoln or anyone else. For this unwillingness, the supporting "liberal" columnists blamed a lack of enthusiasm upon the part of Mr. Truman to co-operate in making the dream come true.

ANOTHER reason for its dissipation was that Senator Taft, in his plodding, methodical way, seemed getting a response in Ohio far more favorable than they had believed possible. The clincher, however, was the overwhelming adoption in Ohio on November 8 of the ballot amendment favored by Mr. Taft and opposed by the labor bosses and the Democratic machine. It has been estimated that by permitting Democrats to vote for Mr. Taft without deserting their party, this amendment is worth 100,000 votes to Mr. Taft. At any rate, journalistic promoters of the dream sorrowfully reported the other day that the smart labor politicians had abandoned Mr. Lincoln as their candidate. For some reason, they failed to note that Mr. Lincoln had abandoned the smart labor politicians first. At the moment, the smart labor politicians are without a candidate, without their dream and quite low in their minds. For the time being, their publicity is soft-pedaling the villainy of Mr. Taft as the enemy of organized labor who is about to be driven out of public life.

INSTEAD, an effort is being made to push the Taft-Hartley Act aside as the main issue and charge that Mr. Taft is "preaching McCormick isolationism all over Ohio," which is not true. Apparently this is acknowledgment that Mr. Taft cannot be killed off because of the labor-leader edict that he must die. If he is going to be murdered, another issue is needed—and more help. Right now the isolationism issue is being put to the front by the labor politicians in charge of the job. Later on, other attacks are sure to be made. Three things seem clear: (1) that Mr. Taft is a far tougher man in a fight than his opponents believed; (2) that his political murder, as plotted by the smart labor politicians, has been postponed; (3) that these smart labor politicians are not nearly as smart as they are advertised. ## Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

If there is anything in this world I despise it is hypocrisy. The dictionary defines hypocrisy, among other things, as "feigning to be what one is not, especially the false assumption of an appearance of virtue or religion; causing simulation of goodness." Or, in plain English, a hypocrite is just a sanctimonious deceiver who sticks his nose into other people's business.

Look at all the fuss they are making in England over poor little Princess Margaret because she has smoked a cigarette in public! Or, to get close to home, you should see the letters I get every now and then when my picture is published with a pipe in my mouth.

Just the other day a woman threatened to cancel her newspaper subscription unless I stopped smoking.

Usually these hypocrites invoke religion to prove that any kind of amusement is wrong. I say that religion has absolutely nothing to do with their prejudices.

Smoking may be bad from a medical point of view. Some doctors say it is, some say it isn't. Only recently an eminent heart specialist, whom I asked about smoking, said this: "Smoking isn't any too good for

Lincoln-Garfield P.T.A. Hears Talk On Reading Problem

Miss M. Anderson Of Geneva College Discusses 'Teaching Of Reading'

Lincoln-Garfield Parent-Teacher Association met Wednesday evening in the school. Miss Lillian Sarver, president, called for various committee reports.

A lovely framed picture has been purchased by the P. T. A. and is on display in the library. This is to be given to the room with the largest attendance of parents. Miss Emma Maxwell won the picture, with the room mother being Mrs. Rose Russo.

Miss Grace McCabe introduced Miss Martha Anderson of Geneva College, Beaver Falls, as the guest speaker of the evening. The subject, which greatly interested the audience, was on the "Teaching of Reading."

Reading Readiness

"Reading is the basis of all the subjects that a child has in school. The first step in teaching the first grade is the reading readiness program, at which time a child is tested for physical handicaps. Children differ in mental as well as physical abilities. Often a physical disability may be easily the cause of a reading handicap."

Miss Anderson then demonstrated a chart with a picture and a word, and said, "a child learns words and meanings by association. By the second and third grades, a child has learned to read orally and smoothly, and understands what he reads. Grades four, five and six have learned to organize thoughts in reading. They learn to outline, use the dictionary, learn different meanings for the same words, and meanings of figures of speech."

In conclusion, Miss Anderson stressed the importance of rest to a child and nothing is quite as good for child as a good home.

Wire Recorder
Bruce Wheaton, of the Sears-Roebuck company, demonstrated the use of a wire recorder to the group. He discussed the various uses of a wire recorder in a classroom.

Principal, Peter Grizzle, spoke on the teaching of thrift to the school children. He pointed out that the school savings program has been successful.

Refreshments were served in the art room, which was attractively decorated in the Thanksgiving theme. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Clyde Williams, Mrs. A. Nocera, Mrs. J. DeRobbio, Mrs. Kay Nelson, Mrs. H. Evans, and Mrs. A. Caranto.

The next meeting will be held on December 14, instead of December 21, due to the holiday season.

Elephant Has Thanksgiving Dinner Early

CIRCEVILLE, O., Nov. 21.—(INS)—Thanksgiving came almost a week early for Big Burma, a 7,000-pound elephant.

Big Burma, owned by the Mills Brothers Circus, which maintains its winter quarters in Circleville, quietly snapped her chain in the wee hours, proceeded past her trainer and 30 slumbering circus workers to the circus supply wagon, and consumed:

A 100-pound sack of potatoes.
Twenty-five pounds of onions.
Twenty loaves of bread.
Ten pounds of pancake flour.
Eight candy bars.

A box of shredded wheat.
Her trainer, Mark Roe, caught her just as she prepared to start on a one-pound tin of tobacco.

Circus officials averred as how they wouldn't punish Big Burma. "How can you spank an elephant," they reasoned.

Today's Fashion Flash

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Sophisticated women and naive girls can wear the same basic hairstyle this winter—and still keep their individual personalities. Says Paris and New York Hair Stylist M. Louis: "It's done with manipulation, not mirrors."

The best coiffure for both types, he insists, is a two-inch-long bob, swept back off the ears, with the waves running vertically. But the sophisticated should brush the front waves off the forehead; the naive should push them down and across the brow.

Which proves: Sophisticates are slick, but ingenuities live with a bang!

Pittsburgh Airport Below Standard For Heavy Air Force Use

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Major General James B. Newman, chief of Air Force Instruction, said Thursday night that the new Greater Pittsburgh airport is below minimum standards for use by heavy bombers and jet fighters.

Newman spoke at the joint dinner meeting of the Society of American Engineers and Reserve Officers Association in Pittsburgh.

He said there is a possibility that jet fighters may use the new airport, but this would preclude use by B-36 bombers.

The airport is in its finishing stages, and was believed to be the most modern in the nation having one of the longest runways.

This Year's Turkey Easier On Budget

Agriculture Department Declares There'll Be Plenty At Reasonable Price

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—(INS)—This year's Thanksgiving turkey is aimed at the budget as well as the breadbasket.

The Agriculture department said there'll be enough festive fowl for everybody "within the range of the greatest number of family food budgets" with plenty of white meat.

The mainstay of the traditional meal no longer is the old-fashioned gobble.

The emphasis is on young, tender, "apartment-sized" birds at prices "well below those of last year," the department asserted.

Larger Production
Pennsylvania turkey production this year is nine per cent larger than 1948 at 6,127,000 pounds, and all the turkeys are either on ice—in storage—or on the way to retailers.

Apple holdings in storage advanced from 405,000 to 1,440,000 bushels during October when heavy fall crop was reaped. Last year the figure was 617,000 bushels, the department said.

But storage holdings of all dairy products dropped between October 1 and November 1.

In Chapter 3 of Ecclesiastes we read "A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance."

Isn't there enough trouble in this world of ours without begrudging us the few joys and diversions we get out of life?

Again, to cope with the hypocrisies, I quote the Bible, this time the 31st Chapter of Jeremiah: "I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow."

Please, you carpers and meddlers, let us have a few laughs. Let us dance a bit and be fools a bit.

EIGHTEEN RESCUED B-29 SURVIVORS REST AT BERMUDA

ditching to failure of navigation instruments, which caused the plane to miss Bermuda, and radio difficulties.

Once released from the hospital, Col. Grable declared, the survivors will "go to church first, and then do some celebrating."

Confident Of Rescue

Grable said that his men always were confident that rescue would come, despite the agonizing experience of seeing and hearing search planes pass them by, unable to spot the two rafts because of clouds and fog.

Finally, a B-17, passing over the same course dozens of times, spotted the frantically waving men, dropped a canvas life-boat, and sent the Canadian destroyer Haida steaming to the rescue.

Staff Sgt. Percy C. Alfred summed up the experience as "three days of complete hell."

Twice the heavy sea flipped over one of the overloaded rafts like a flapjack, and the airmen had to struggle back into the unsteady, slippery emergency float.

From the outset, they conserved their slim supply of fresh water and subsisted on candy bars.

Men Are Commended

Grable commended the men for their high standard of discipline from the ditching to the rescue.

The only major grumbling arose from the over-crowding. Grable said:

"I think our chief topic of conversation was 'Please move over and give me some room' and most of the time we left off the 'please'."

He added:

"It was a fairly lucky landing. The tail broke off and sank in about five minutes."

"Two of my men we couldn't get to because of the swells and winds."

"If it had been a calm day, we could have rescued all 20."

Those lost were Pfc. Robert H. Dobson, 19, Decatur, Ill., a gunner and Cpl. Raymond Breit, 32, a ground crew man, of Arlington, Calif.

Vice President And Bride Make Atlanta Visit

ATLANTA, Nov. 21. — (INS) — Vice-President and Mrs. Alben Barkley, the nation's most popular newsmen, continued their honeymoon in Atlanta today, leaving the problem of setting up housekeeping for a later date.

The jaunty "Veep" and his attractive bride talked with newsmen shortly after they arrived by car in Atlanta last night on the third leg of their honeymoon trip, after motoring from Nashville, Tenn. Barkley declared:

"Except for four scheduled speeches in December, my wife and I will spend our time honeymooning—most of it somewhere in the south."

Mrs. Barkley said she and her husband have no definite schedule as to when they might leave Atlanta, but she intimated it probably would be today.

The direction of their journey has prompted reports that the couple will honeymoon at President Truman's retreat at Key West, Fla.

Another Delay In Thomas Case

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. — (INS) — Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff today granted another delay in the fraud trial of Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) and set the case for Nov. 28.

Thomas, accused of defrauding the government by receiving salary "kickbacks" from congressional employees, was to have gone to trial Nov. 7 but successive postponements have been necessary because his attorney is engaged in another case.

Earlier, a long delay was occasioned by the congressman's illness from a stomach ailment. Physicians have certified that he is now able to stand trial.

Miss B. Campbell Talks On Reading At McGill P.T.A.

Westminster Teacher And Six McGill Teachers Discuss Problem Of Reading

Arthur McGill P. T. A. members met recently at the school with business conducted by Mrs. William Langan. Various committee reports were given and an enrollment of 232 members in the unit was reported.

Orlando Lucidore, teacher at Pollock school and president of the school's P. T. A., stated that the trophy won by the P. T. A. float would be presented to the P. T. A. presidents at Rose Avenue P. T. A. meeting Tuesday, November 22. Representatives from each unit should be present at the meeting.

Roll call was taken, with Miss Cox awarded the prize for the third grade and Mrs. Stewart for the fifth grade. Mrs. Langan stated that at least two representatives of the McGill unit should be on hand for the council meeting at the Y. W. C. A. on Monday, November 21, at 8 o'clock.

Program chairman, Edwin Feass, said that there would be a panel in December by Elmer Delancy on "The Psychological Testing in the New Castle Public Schools."

Speaker Introduced

Dr. Joseph Hartman, principal, introduced the guest speaker, Miss Beulah Campbell, elementary education specialist from Westminster.

college. The subject for the evening was the "Teaching of Reading." On the panel for the discussion were Miss Helen Maxwell, Miss Roxana Irwin, Miss Helen Meyer, Mrs. Nina Leiblich, Miss Ann McMillin and Mrs. Daisy Hurst.

Miss Campbell began, "Progress in education will be made when parents and teachers can meet together in this way. The teaching of reading is an important problem. All children must be taught to read, as so many things of their daily lives require reading ability. . . . newspaper, books, movies and stores. It also enables them to get along well in school, as each subject requires reading ability."

"A teacher should understand the child and how to teach reading. So many new materials are now available for schools and the new work books, manuals and pictures make children eager to learn. Ninety-nine per cent of the children who fail, fail because of poor reading ability. Books says that failure is due to many things, for example, speech, hearing and physical handicaps. But these are only a part of the problem."

"There are many 'clues' to help a child read, and the panel will discuss each one."

Phonetic analysis is the first clue discussed by Miss Irwin. "Phonetics," she explains, "is the science of letter sounds. Children first learn initial sounds and then the consonants and longer words. A newer list of words show that sight words or phonetic words are again popular in schools."

Meaning Important

Miss Meyer states that "recognizing a word is not enough, as a child must know the meaning of a word. The ability of reading aloud is no indication of meaning comprehension. Speed development is not important."

"Making Use of the Meaning Derived Att" was discussed by Mrs. Hurst. "Stress is placed on the child reading for his own use, as there are so many things in everyday life that require reading ability."

Miss Maxwell outlined the reading readiness plan. "Give a child many experiences. Let him actually see a train, plane, various animals and large cities so that he will be 'ready' to read when the teacher gets him in school. Reading for a meaning is more definite when many experiences have been witnessed."

STOP-LOOK AND MISSE

A battle field is a pretty dangerous place. Sometimes there are a good many people killed. Our highways are dangerous nowadays too. Autos seem to kill more people than guns do. Pedestrians are sometimes to blame for getting hurt.

Perhaps it would be well for drivers to be more careful. A stop sign is a good thing. It means to stop and look around a little bit.

Courtesy is worth more on the highway than in the parlor. The golden rule is just as good as ever.

Republican Women's Convention Gives Idea Of Trend In 1950 Election Battle

PREPARING FOR BONUS PAYMENT

HARRISBURG, Nov. 21.—(INS)—

A portent of the 1950 GOP campaign platform was detected at the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women convention . . . The speakers laid into the national administration for steering "America down the road to socialism" . . . The Republicans see the next election as America standing at the crossroads . . . The people must choose, GOP leaders believe, between a Republican leadership who oppose indiscriminate "welfare state legislation" and Democrats who favor a tight central government . . . New York Cong. Leonard W. Hall, chairman of the National Republican Congressional committee, stated, "1950 is the deadline to save our America" . . . Cong. Walter H. Judd, of Minnesota, called on Republicans to form "a crusade to turn back the tide of national regimentation" and Gov. James H. Duff, who was introduced as "a great modern crusader" said "as an advocate for the average guy I feel we are not putting across to him what the 'free enterprise system' means."

Machinery to distribute the half billion dollar state veterans bonus is in high gear . . . ex-servicemen and women were scheduled to receive bonus applications by December 1 . . . The State Veterans' Compensation bureau has completed printing of an eight-page information booklet, "Your Pennsylvania State World War II Compensation" outlining step-by-step veterans' procedure to get the bonus . . . Deadline for application was set for July 1, 1950 . . . The booklet says the bonus is tax-free . . . Veterans are warned of fraud . . . A $1,000 fine or five years in jail are maximum penalties.

Pennsylvania boasts one of the best and safest civilian airport systems in the nation . . . The State Planning board said the development of airports and plans for protection of the air-minded public has received nationwide recognition as a model . . . The system has hauled down the number of accidents and violations in the commonwealth . . . With more than 700 established air markers, Pennsylvania is considered one of the best marked states . . . In 22 communities, more than 300 daily airline passenger flights are licensed by 11 airlines . . . Three hundred and forty-nine public and private airlines are licensed, including 12 seaplane bases and one helicopter landing field . . . The state is America's leading helicopter producer and the home of the largest light airplane plant in the world . . . Samuel P. Langley, the first American to apply scientific methods to mechanical flight, made many of his pioneer experiments at Pittsburgh.

Pennsylvania Week has begun to mushroom into a year-round proposition . . . A Pennsylvania Week group, the All-Pennsylvania College Alumni association of Washington, D. ### CONSUMERS PREFER TOP-QUALITY EGGS

Judging from the prices consumers are willing to pay for clean, accurately sized eggs of good quality in preference to soiled, poorly graded eggs, producers can afford to market their eggs so they are well sized, free from stains and of high quality.

The average difference in prices between fancy grade (top quality) and producers (eggs rejected from the fancy, extra, and standard grades because of either under-sized, soiled, or tinted eggs) was over seven cents per dozen for large eggs during 1947 at the Butler Producers Egg Auction.

This is often the penalty for lack of care when cleaning and grading eggs. For medium-sized white eggs, the average price differential between fancy and producer grade eggs was three cents during 1947 and four cents during 1948. These records show that producers can get from $1 to $2 per 30-dozen case more if they grade and clean their eggs carefully.

A. Kermit Birth, extension agricultural economist, of the Pennsylvania State college, who summarized these figures, interviewed egg buyers who sell both to the wholesale and retail trade. These buyers stated that the trade detests eggs with stained shells, eggs not uniform in size and color, and eggs that were not held on farms in cool, damp places so that they maintained their freshness. Egg buyers dislike the sight of eggs packed in poor cases. Worn cases are not attractive, they may fall apart while the eggs are in transit, and egg breakage is likely to be higher.

The origin of marionettes and puppets has been lost in obscurity, but they held a prominent place in the lives of the people of ancient India.

N.S.A. Enjoys Dinner-Program

Tips On Letter Writing Is Movie Shown To National Secretaries Association

National Secretaries association enjoyed a dinner-program at the First Christian church which included an informative motion picture on "Tips on Letter Writing."

A 6:30 o'clock dinner was served prior to the program with the Thanksgiving motif predominating with a lovely centerpiece being used.

Miss Helen Glass, chairman of the educational committee, in charge of the program, introduced the speakers of the evening, T. J. Foley and D. R. Kelliher of the Manufacturers Light and Heat company. They showed the motion picture of "Tips on Letter Writing." In addition to being interesting, the film was highly educational.

President, Miss Olive Webb, presided during the brief meeting and committee reports were heard. It was voted to prepare baskets of food for a needy family at Christmas.

The social committee will have charge of the next meeting and there will be an exchange and special drawing.

Mrs. Dorothy Latshaw, social committee chairman, had charge of Thursday evening's reservations.

December 15 is the date of the next dinner meeting at First Christian church.

Croton Students Observe Book Week By Clever Program

Book Shop And Books Portrayed By Pupils At Croton School Recently

The world before you will unfold with the magic key . . . a book.

Students of the fifth grade class of Croton school, with the above thought in mind, presented a playlet in keeping with Book Week. It was entitled "A Live Bookshop" and carried out the idea of a book-store with a clerk and customers.

The books were children who gave a short account of what the book contained. Every pupil had some part in the activity. Those who did not have speaking parts worked on posters, book titles and invitations.

Miss Ruth Drescher, fifth grade teacher, was in charge of the playlet. Mrs. Walter McKee, of the children's section of the New Castle library, gave a few appropriate remarks concerning the program.

Mrs. Arthur Walker, principal, closed the program with a short talk on Book Week and extended an invitation to many parents present to attend the Thanksgiving program to be held Wednesday afternoon at 1:45.

Equipment Made Here Unloaded In Arabia

On a low, flat island 27 miles long and 10 miles wide, in the Persian Gulf a few miles off the eastern shore of Arabia, husky Arabs will soon unload more than 140 tons of cast iron equipment which was fabricated by skilled workers in the New Castle plant of The National Radiator Co.

Bahrain Island is the largest body of land in an archipelago extending into the Persian Gulf. It presents a great expanse of sand, many luxuriant oases and is the headquarters of the local pearl trade. The island is noted for its unique breed of white donkey, for its ship building, sail cloth manufacture and reed mat weaving. Dates are the chief agricultural product.

Since 1507 when the Portuguese occupied the island, changes have been very slow in the economic and social life of Bahrain Island. Then, oil was discovered. Today two large American oil companies have a keen interest in this island for they jointly own the only oil producing company. This company is now ordering refinery equipment from The National Radiator Co.

Hundred Tons Sent

More than 100 tons of a recent export shipment to Bahrain Island consisted of cast iron cooling and condensing sections. These were urgently needed to replace worn-out units in the Bahrain refinery. The other 40 tons, made in Pennsylvania for installation on Bahrain Island, are for routine maintenance and replacement in the refinery.

The National Radiator Co. is a leading supplier of cast iron materials used in the petroleum and chemical industries throughout the United States.

The company's export business has received considerable stimulation since World War II. However, the shortage of American dollars in foreign countries has greatly slowed down the purchase in the United States of National Radiator materials. The devaluation of currencies, recently announced by many foreign countries, presents another obstacle to foreign trade.

Not long ago, more than 106 tons of cooling and condensing sections were exported under the E.C.A. program to zinc producer, Det Norske Zinkkompani, for installation in its sulphuric acid plant at Odda, Norway.

More than 7 tons of cast iron, fabricated by National Radiator, is now heading for a fertilizer factory in India. It will be used as a sulphuric acid cooler.

Chile Buys Local Materials

Chile also buys National Radiator materials. Cast iron condensing and cooling sections will be fabricated into a tar vapor condenser which will be installed at part of a large Chilean steel works expansion program.

Another shipment to South America consists of nearly 35 tons of equipment for a crude oil treating installation. These National Radiator cast iron products will Children enjoy frosted graham crackers with a glass of milk for an afternoon snack. The frosting may be quickly made by moistening confectioners' sugar with a little milk and flavoring with vanilla.

Good Taste

By FRANCINE MARKEL

TABLE SILVER

"I have never attended a really formal dinner but I have never had any doubts about my manners. Recently, however, a friend was telling me of a dinner she had attended at which she used a steak knife, oyster fork and a few other pieces of silver which I have never even seen. Just what pieces of silver go to make up a complete set?"

Answer: The pieces of silver most frequently used are: Dinner or "large" fork—for the meat course. The small fork (in most families the only fork in the silver set other than the dessert or salad fork) is used for all courses, exclusive of the meat course. The oyster fork—that tiny implement for all sea food cocktails—clams, oysters, shrimp, etc., etc. Dinner knife (the steak knife to which your friend referred) has a steel blade and is used for the meat course. The small knife is used for all purposes other than cutting meat. In hotels, it is ordinarily used as a butter knife. Whenever fruit is served for dessert, a fruit fork and knife should be used for paring and cutting. Spoons are: Soup, tea (this latter is sometimes used for dessert), tiny after-dinner coffee spoon (served along with demitasse). Sometimes hotels serve ice cream forks (a spoon-like implement with a pronged edge) but they are rarely if ever served in private homes.

Silver is placed in the order of its use—knives and spoons on the right; forks on the left of the plate. Sometimes, the tiny oyster fork is placed to the extreme right of the plate, but usually it is on the extreme left.

Question: If when visiting for dinner something I do not like is served, may I refuse it?

Answer: It is much more gracious to accept a little of whatever is offered and make a pretense of eating it.

Visual Aid Program For Teachers Formed

STATE COLLEGE, Pa.—To encourage and improve teacher training in audio-visual aids education, a pioneering organization, the Pennsylvania Audio-Visual Association for Teacher Education, has been founded.

Eighteen persons representing 13 Pennsylvania colleges and universities organized the association and named Dr. Abram W. VanderMeer, associate professor of education at the Pennsylvania State College, as the first president.

"With the recent trend towards the use of audio-visual aids in the classroom, we are hoping that other groups will organize to help promote teacher training in audio-visual education," Dr. VanderMeer says.

Colleges participating in organizing the association, believed to be the only one of its kinds in the country, were the State Teachers Colleges at Bloomsburg, California, East Stroudsburg, Indiana, Kutztown, Lock Haven and Millersville; Carnegie Institute of Technology; University of Pennsylvania; Temple University; Grove City College; Elizabethtown College and Penn State.

SERVE SHRIMP
An easy way to serve fresh shrimp for a supper dish is to cook, shell, and clean them, then saute them in butter or margarine just until they are hot. Serve them immediately with a wedge of lemon, a baked potato, and a green salad. Flavor the dressing for the salad with garlic for a zesty touch.

In the year 1276 there were four Popes of Rome.

California Police Probe Murder Of 17-Month-Old Girl

HURON, Cal., Nov. 21.—(INS)—Discovery of the body of a 17-month-old girl, who had been criminally mistreated before she was murdered, touched off a wide manhunt today in central California's San Joaquin Valley.

Victim of the assault was Josephine Ynez, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ynez, cotton workers.

The body of the infant, the side of her head bashed in and her face half-buried in the mud, was found in a field about 100 yards from a dance hall in Huron, 50 miles southwest of Fresno.

Attired in a traditional white satin floor length gown with a finger tip veil and a Juliette cap the lovely bride carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and mums.

Englishwoman Condemns "Spoilt Mrs. America"

LONDON, Nov. 21.—(INS)—An anonymous Englishwoman lashed out in most unflattering fashion today against her American sisters, condemning alike the looks and outlook of U. S. womanhood.

She accused "Mrs. America" as being "spoilt," "peevish" and "aggressive" in "making slaves of your sweethearts and husbands," and of "raising your children as dollar snobs."

The editor of the Conservative weekly "The Recorder," claimed that the letter, addressed to "Mrs. America," was an unsolicited contribution from a Birmingham woman. The magazine invited "replies in the same spirit."

The writer, who requested anonymity, said: "I have been a close observer of your American womanhood for sometime and I recently arrived at some unpleasant conclusions. . . . I declare you are spoilt—every one of you."

Shrill Voices
"Apart from the quiet-speaking southerner, your voices are the most tiring, grating and unmusical I have met anywhere in my world travels."

"I can recognize an American woman anywhere by her aggressive, petulant looks. . . . The tell-tale 'I want' to waiters. . . . With the inflection of a peevish child."

Criticism of English food by American woman, the writer said, was due to America's "almighty dollar outlook." The letter stated: "You use the dollar as a yardstick in all your measurements. When you become engaged all your talk is of the presents your fiancé brings you and what material things you will gain by marriage. . . . you are hurt and amazed when this leads to divorce."

"Even before you are married you use your future husband as a slave. After marriage you still demand the first attention, even beyond your husband's job."

"Dollar Snob" Children
"What I have seen of your children make me believe that you are bringing them up to be dollar snobs at a very early age and what junior wants pop usually provides or junior will develop some inferiority complex."

"This spoiling continues until, at teen age, they become rulers of the house and home and you declare yourselves unable to cope with it. A teen-age tyranny is gripping your country."

The Recorder, founded in 1870 is an independent, Conservative and strongly anti-Socialist publication which claims circulation in every country of the world.

The "Letter to Mrs. America," printed on page two, was preceded by an editor's note saying it was published with the hope "that it would cause no offense and will be read by our American readers in the true spirit of helpful criticism."

Duff Won't Attend Annual Dinner Date

Scheduled For Governors' Conference When Penna. Society Of New York Meets

HARRISBURG, Nov. 21.—(INS)—The annual Pennsylvania Society of New York dinner, longstanding sounding board for the states politicians and possible candidates, will not be attended next month by Gov. James H. Duff.

The governor is scheduled to attend a meeting of the U. S. Governors' conference executive committee December 10 when the dinner will be held at New York. Duff's absence undoubtedly will spark political speculation inasmuch as he has been frequently mentioned as a possible Republican candidate in 1950 for the U. S. Senate post now held by Francis J. Myers, of Philadelphia.

Myers is slated to attend the dinner along with U. S. Sen. Edward Martin and top Republican leaders headed by National Committeeman G. Mason Owlett.

The society is composed of prominent Pennsylvanians active in finance, business and industry whose affairs make headquarters in New York necessary.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

How to Appreciate Children's "Art"

When you and I were in school, the art period usually consisted of each of us trying to draw the same banana, lily, oblong box or whatever object it was that the teacher had for us to copy. The ones who made a reasonable facsimile of the object were praised. The rest of us learned to dislike the drawing period.

Today, in most schools, art is a different sort of thing. Children are permitted and encouraged to develop their own ideas. Even three-year-olds in the nursery school have easels, paints and brushes. Teachers have learned one lesson about appreciating children's "art" that we parents should learn.

If Johnny or Mabel draw at home, if they paint with bold strokes and then come to us with their creations, we shouldn't start off with, "What is it?" To do so will often discourage them. They haven't necessarily tried to make anything. They have drawn a picture that pleases them.

A word or two appreciating the fine colors or the sweep of lines is what is called for. Don't "third-degree" them to try to establish identity at the drawing. As they grow older, they will move toward representing things. But it is good for them first to feel free to use paint in an uninhibited way.

State Considering Processing Bonus Through Banks

Under 'Bank Plan' Bonus Applications Would Be Handled By 600 Banks

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—(INS)—The state is reported to be considering turning over the processing of the veteran's bonus payments to individual banks rather than setting up a central administrative agency.

The plan, whereby bonus applications would be handled by 600 banks throughout the state, reportedly would save the commonwealth more than a million dollars in administering the half-billion dollar bonus.

The banks, it was explained, would work in cooperation with the auditor general, state treasurer and adjutant general's office.

Proponents of the "bank plan" say it would halve the administrative cost of the bonus, estimated to be $2 or more on each of the one million eligible veterans under the original plan for an independent agency headed by Adjutant General Frank Weber. The agency would require some 700 new state employees.

Check Legality

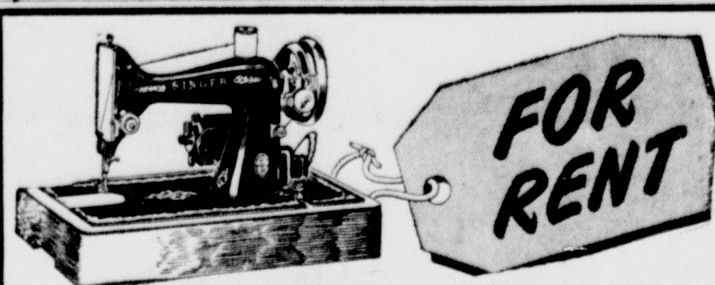

Gov. James H. Duff, it was reported, has been acquainted with the "bank plan," and has asked Attorney General T. McKeen Chidsey to check its legality.

The Mellon National Bank, of Pittsburgh, reportedly devised the plan which would tentatively work this way:

Veterans would apply for and file bonus applications through designated local banks. The forms would be cleared through two "key" banks, one in Pittsburgh and the other in Philadelphia. The "key" banks would process them further through the state's fiscal offices and the adjutant general's office. Then the bonus checks would return through the same agencies, and the veterans would pick them up at the local banks where they first applied.

Customers' Corner

Will A&P be put out of business if the anti-trust lawyers win their suit against this company?

Absolutely! And here's why: A&P's retail stores will be broken up into seven groups and sold to new owners.

A&P's factories, which produce many of our fine foods, will be sold to still other new owners.

None of the stores and factories can be connected in any way, which will wipe out the savings you now enjoy on the foods A&P makes.

None of the present owners or management who have made A&P what it is today can have anything to do with either the stores or the factories.

So, while there may be a food store where your A&P is now located, it won't be your A&P store. It will be operated by different owners and under new management.

Make no mistake about it, if the anti-trust lawyers win their suit it will mean the end of A&P as you know it.

LEASE RESCINDED

In an opinion handed down by Judge W. Walter Braham a coal lease given by Philip L. McQuiston and Edna A. McQuiston to Sylvester Matuszewski in Wayne township is rescinded.

The suit was one in equity in which the plaintiffs asked for rescinding of the lease, charging fraud. They testified that Matuszewski had approached them on June 18, 1948 representing himself to be a partner and an agent of the Bowie Coal company. With him was a notary public George Wilson who told the plaintiffs he had investigated the Bowie Coal company and had found it to be a reputable concern.

The plaintiffs said they later found that Matuszewski was not a partner in the Bowie company and that he was attempting to sell the lease to the company at his own terms. They then asked the lease be rescinded.

In his opinion Judge Braham said there had been evidence of sufficient fraud to warrant the rescinding and he ordered it. The decree becomes final in ten days. If there are no exceptions filed. There are about half a dozen other cases similar to this one pending. Other persons in Wayne township have leased property to Mr. Matuszewski and they testified in the McQuiston case to similar circumstances.

COUNTY FINANCES

A check of the county's financial condition as of November 17 reveals the fact that the county will probably finish the year with a balance in the general fund, about the same as it started the year. The balance as of January 1 was $170,885.59. The cash balance in the general fund as of November 17 was $245,610.94.

Indications are that the county will expend about $75,000 from the general fund between now and the first of January 1950, and will leave the balance approximately the same as it was on January 1.

This means that the county has operated the general fund entirely upon the current taxes received during this year, something which has not been done for a long time. When the sales of delinquent properties began to boom some seven or eight years ago the receipts by the county were heavy. Each year there was a balance of anywhere from $300,000 to $400,000 in the treasury but this was depleted yearly due to a need for more money than the tax levy brought in.

In short, the county lived partially upon the "fat" for some years. The levy was around five mills but the money spent represented a millage of seven or slightly more.

The sale of delinquent properties has dropped off in the past two years due to the fact that they have been fairly well cleaned up. The general fund receipts for 1949 up to November 17 were $486,319.59. Add to this the balance of January 1, 1949 of $170,885.59, a total of receipts and balance shows $657,205.18 for the year up to November 17.

The expenditures for 1949 up to November 17, 1949 have been $411,594.24, leaving a balance as of that date of $245,610.94. Between now and December 31 an estimated $75,000 will be spent from the general fund.

The county is in sound financial shape, the bonded indebtedness is down to $67,000 and will be completely retired on July 1, 1951. What the millage for 1950 will be is not known yet but it appears likely there will be no increase over the present total levy of 7 mills. Of this 5 1/2 is for general purposes and 1 1/2 mills for institution or poor purposes.

The county assessors have increased the assessed valuation in the past year which will mean additional revenue. The assessments are expected to be in before the middle of December, which will give the county commissioners a clear picture of what they have for tax purposes. This will be the first year the assessments have been in that early, for a long time.

REPEAL HAS SUCCEEDED

Alcohol is not desirable as a food which forms any part of a wholesome diet. Dr. Haven Emerson informs us it has been observed that the lifesaving reflexes of the body are all slowed from 5 to 10 per cent by amounts of alcohol too small to be socially appreciable, and in amounts far smaller than can ever be registered under the law or by the police as indicating intoxication. In the beginning states, in amounts too small to be appreciated, alcohol slows the reflexes of the body, with which we are endowed to protect ourselves from destruction—the nervous reflex action of the eye, the ear, the muscles—which we depend on for safety in this world of speed and power and uncontrolled human association.

Only 5,000 Farmers Qualify For Refund

Refund Allows Farmer To Regain Half Of Five-Cent Tax On Gasoline

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Only 5,000 farmers out of the 178,000 in the state qualified for the quarterly gasoline tax refund, the state board of finance and revenue said Friday.

The refund, authorized by the 1949 General Assembly, allows a farmer to regain half of the five-cent-a-gallon tax paid in the quarter ending September 30.

"Checks will total about $30,000 and average about $15.65 each for a quarter. This compares with the $1,500,000 annual refund cost estimated by the legislature," Board Secretary Elmer G. Graham, said. The legislature sanctioned quarterly repayments upon application by the farmers. Each application costs $1.50 as a filing fee.

Gasoline used in gasoline-powered farm machinery is subject to a refund.

Folks Of Fame

World-wide explorer and chart maker, Chapt. James Cook, was born October 28, 1728, at Marton Village, Yorkshire, England. He was first apprenticed to a haberdasher, then to shipowners. In 1755 he joined the royal navy, where he was made master of the sloop "Grampus," then the "Garland," and of the "Solebay," in which vessel he sounded and surveyed the St. Lawrence river, and made a chart of the channel from Quebec to the sea. His later travels took him to New Zealand, Australia, Tasmania and Africa, making charts of the coasts of these lands. He was the first to realize the size and importance of the Hawaiian group of islands, and it was there he met his death from hostile natives on February 14, 1779.

F. Scott Fitzgerald was historian of "Flaming Youth" of the hectic twenties, the biographer of the "Flapper." He was born at St. Paul, Minn., September 24, 1896, and served in World War I. Between his war service and his death at 44, December 21, 1940, he wrote best-selling tales, "This Side of Paradise," "Flappers and Philosophers," "The Beautiful and Damned," "The Great Gatsby," "All the Sad Young Men" and "The Last Tycoon," which was left unfinished when he died.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Only 5,000 farmers out of the 178,000 in the state qualified for the quarterly gasoline tax refund, the state board of finance and revenue said Friday.

The refund, authorized by the 1949 General Assembly, allows a farmer to regain half of the five-cent-a-gallon tax paid in the quarter ending September 30.

"Checks will total about $30,000 and average about $15.65 each for a quarter. This compares with the $1,500,000 annual refund cost estimated by the legislature," Board Secretary Elmer G. Graham, said. The legislature sanctioned quarterly repayments upon application by the farmers. Each application costs $1.50 as a filing fee.

Gasoline used in gasoline-powered farm machinery is subject to a refund.

 ROAST CHICKEN CALIFORNIA STYLE
 5 lb. roasting chicken
 Bread stuffing
 8 thin skinned oranges
 1/2 cup strained honey (or sugar syrup)
 4 tbsp. butter

METHOD—1. Prepare chicken for roasting by first singeing to remove hairs and then plucking out pin feathers. Draw down the skin and remove the neck quite close to the body. Tie the neck skin. Remove entrails. 2. Sew the almond, liver, heart and part of the neck in a salted water on top of the stove and use in the dressing with the broth in which they have been cooked. 3. Wash bird both inside and out with cold water. Dry with a clean cloth. 4. Place the bread stuffing in the body cavity being careful not to pack too tightly as dressing swells in cooking. 5. Rub surface of chicken with butter, then dredge with a mixture of salt, pepper and flour. 6. Put chicken into roaster and bake. 7. Remove the top of the oranges and one hour before the chicken is to be done, place them around the chicken in the roaster. Bake oranges frequently with the honey and butter which have been heated together. 8. Remove chicken from roaster and place it some place to keep warm while making the gravy by adding thickening to drippings in bottom of roaster. 9. Arrange on platter placing the oranges on green leaves around the fowl.
TIME—Allow 20 minutes per pound after the first 15 minutes.
TEMPERATURE—Bake uncovered 15 minutes at 475° F., very hot oven and then cover the roaster and reduce the heat to 325° F., quick moderate oven.

Government Loses Nearly 12 Million On Price Supports

Loss During August Brings Deficit
Of Farm Support Program
To $17,750,000

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(INS)—The government reported Saturday that it lost nearly 12 million dollars in supporting farm prices during August.

The loss, announced by the Agriculture department, brought the net deficit of the price support program to more than 17 and three-quarter million dollars for the first two months of the fiscal year which began July 1.

The July loss was $5,291,000, compared to $12,475,000 for August.

The department listed its chief losses on wheat, grain sorghums, peanuts and potatoes.

The report on the program stated that total investments in the program claimed 230 million dollars in August. The investments represent the value of outstanding loans to farmers and the cost of commodities acquired through purchases and loan defaults.

The department had a total of two billion, 680 million dollars invested in this manner by September 1, compared with two billion, 450 million dollars a month earlier.

Vet's Experience With Gun Pays Off

Finds Way To Make Treacherous
Bofor 40-mm. Aircraft Gun
Safe To Use

PHILADELPHIA.—(INS)—A former Yankee Doodle has come up with a dandy.

Before he joined the maintenance branch, field service division at the Frankford arsenal in Philadelphia, Eddie Robinson had tinkered for four years with deadly Bofor 40mm anti-aircraft guns.

Robinson had learned in the Army how to take them apart, put them together, fight them and teach them. But he also knew their treachery.

The experts had tried all sorts of methods to make the Bofor safer to handle but their efforts were fruitless.

Then Robinson took the engineering problem in his hands. After failing twice, he finally found the solution.

After his idea had made the weapon foolproof, Robinson laughed and said that the answer was "so simple everybody overlooked it."

State Water Board Wins Legal Victory

HARRISBURG, Nov. 21.—(INS)—The Sanitary Water board, director of the state's clean streams program, today hailed its first legal victory in a criminal action against a Beaver county oil refinery.

The case involved L. Sonneborn Sons, Inc., of Petrolia, charged with emptying wastes containing sulphuric acid into Bear creek.

Three plant officials were named defendants also. In a final settlement, the defendants paid $10,000 to the State Fish commission for restocking the stream, the corporation paid a $1,000 fine and the individuals and costs of prosecution according to corporation were ordered to pay the commission.

The Butler county court sustained the contention of the accused that a case had not been established against them, but the State Department of Justice appealed to the superior court and won a reversal of the lower court decision.

LOTS OF APPLES

BOSTON — Bad news for doctors out of New England today: The New England Crop Reporting Service said there's an exceptionally good apple harvest—about 8,993,000 bushels or almost 50 percent above normal.

YWCA Fellowship Dinner Planned On November 29

World Fellowship Fund To Receive Proceeds Of Annual Dinner At Cathedral

COLORFUL PROGRAM TO BE SCHEDULED

Annual World Fellowship supper and program of the Young Women's Christian Association will be Tuesday, November 29, at 6:15 o'clock in the Cathedral.

Plans were made by a committee composed of representatives from all clubs in the YWCA, including both women and girls. Mrs. G. G. Horcher is chairman of World Fellowship.

On account of a Metropolitan Guild concert that same night at 8:30, the YWCA event will adjourn at 8 o'clock. Since both affairs will be in the Cathedral, many people will now be able to attend events.

Y. W. Has Wide Scope

The YWCA operates in 65 countries of the world and in many of these places either acute needs are still experienced or the women and girls are working hard on reconstruction. In either case they need the help of friends. The local YWCA wants to raise $325 for its share of the national World Fellowship fund. Clubs in the Y are working in various ways to raise their share of this fund and envelopes have been mailed to the whole membership asking for contributions to this worthy fund. These contributions will be given at the program on Tuesday.

To Raise Funds

In their effort to raise the money the committee plans for the sale of various wares at the Cathedral. There will be Christmas cards on sale, cards with beautiful coloring and with carols and music inside; since every little bit helps, there will be recipes for wassail on sale at 10 cents each. Wassail is the traditional Christmas drink of England and is made from fruit juice, elder and spice, a truly delicious drink and is served warm.

A new feature in the sale of articles will be the nationality booths where friends may buy gifts from other lands including the charming bells of India, baskets from Mexico, wood carvings from Europe, pottery modeled in ancient Chinese design of dignified simplicity. This pottery will be on the small black platforms which are so symbolic of Chinese interior decoration. This small platform does for a vase or a figurine what a frame does for a picture. These gifts are unusual, attractive and in a popular price range.

Proceeds For Cause
All proceeds will be added to the World Fellowship fund. The booths will be open at 5:30 o'clock for people who can arrive early and will remain open after the program until 9 o'clock so that plenty of time will be furnished for browsing around to choose gifts for Christmas and at the same time helping a splendid cause.

Sons Are Held In Killing Of Father

MARPLE, TWP., Pa., Nov. 21.—(INS)—Delaware county detectives said today that two brothers have confessed killing their father because he assertedly beat their partially crippled mother.

The victim, Benjamin P. D'Amore, 58 a nurseryman, was slain last night by bullets from a rifle and a shotgun as he unlocked a garage door on the grounds of the D'Amore home adjoining the nursery.

Fred Jack, chief of Delaware county detectives, identified the sons as Nicholas, 24, and John, 22. He said they surrendered immediately.

CREAMO ONLY MARGARINE WITH CREAM

5 out of 6 choose Creamo in Taste-Test

The makers of Creamo Margarine discovered many years ago that pure sweet cream added to their already top-quality margarine made it even better. Better than it is possible to make a margarine without cream. They found the addition of pure cream made Creamo sweeter, smoother and more delicious; so much more delicious, the difference is distinctive. This one simple but costly improvement was incorporated in the churning of Creamo Margarine and like other simple but worthwhile discoveries, the addition of pure cream has made Creamo the outstanding product in the bread-spread field. If you haven't already tried cream-enriched Creamo Margarine, try a pound of this deliciously different spread today. Ask your grocer for Creamo, the only margarine made with cream.

Virginia Halfback Killed In Crash

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. 21.—(INS)—An automobile accident in Charlottesville yesterday resulted in the death of Gene Edmonds, halfback for the University of Virginia's Cavaliers.

Edmonds, a 25-year-old senior and marine veteran, was thrown from a car as it went over an embankment and was pinned beneath the vehicle. He was married and was the father of a baby daughter.

Army And Navy Battle Saturday In Philadelphia

Penn Meets Cornell Thursday, Ohio State Meets California In Rose Bowl

By HOWARD SIGMUND
(International News Service Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Staid old Philadelphia becomes the football capital of the nation this week while the rest of the college grid world busies itself with filling bowls and otherwise wrapping up most of its business for 1949.

Things like bowl bids won't enter in the city of brotherly love on Thanksgiving Day when Penn and Cornell meet for the Ivy league crown.

Army vs. Navy
Nor will any New Year's classic be thought about on Saturday when unbeaten Army takes on Navy in their annual to-do before an expected 102,000 fans at municipal stadium.

But in other parts of the nation, bowl selections hinge on the outcome of many games.

Not so out on the west coast where the lineup for Pasadena's Rose Bowl is virtually set. California's Bears sewed up their second straight bid by whipping Stanford, 33-14, Saturday to finish the season unbeaten and untied.

Bears vs. Ohio State
"Pappy" Waldorf's powerhouse won 10 games in a row and its rout of Stanford was its 17th straight Pacific Coast conference win.

Ohio State's Buckeyes should get an invite formally today. Wes Fesler's crew tied mighty Michigan for the Big Ten championship by coming from behind to deadlock the Wolverines, 7-7.

The Southwest conference champion and the host at the Cotton Bowl will be decided in Rice's game with Baylor Saturday.

Rice knocked over Texas Christian, 20-14, and Baylor upset SMU, 25-26. The Owls are unbeaten in conference play while the Bears dropped a game to Texas.

Four Unbeaten Teams
Tulane, lone Southeastern conference entry without a league setback, can become the home entry at the Sugar Bowl by beating rough Louisiana State this week. The Green Wave ruined Virginia's bid for an unbeaten season by pasting the Cavaliers, 28 to 14.

Virginia now must face North Carolina, co-kingspin of the Southern conference, who took Duke, 21-20.

Oklahoma, along with Notre Dame, California and Army, make up the "big four" of the unbeaten teams of the nation.

FLOOR OFFICIALS TO MEET WEDNESDAY
There will be a meeting at the Y Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock of the Lawrence County Basketball Officials association, it was announced today by Bill Wallace. All members are asked to be present.

ELLIOTTS STILL LEAD
Elliott Stealers are yet leading the Tri-County Women's Bowling circuit with 15 victories and three defeats. Friday night the Elliotts won two and lost one to Monaca. Mary Sullivan had a 432 for high in three games and Ginny Forest 182 high for one game. Friday night they play Ambridge at Ambridge.

New Castle Must Stop Paterra, Tiger Flash

He can't be a one-man backfield because McKeesport has four other top-notch backfield performers who rate well in pre-game billing. However Francis Paterra is one of the top-flight backs of Western Pennsylvania and is the sparkplug that has carried the Tigers to ten straight victories.

New Castle High Red Hurricane line will decide whether or not it will be eleven straight for the Tigers when these two clubs meet for the WPIAL championship at Pitt Stadium next Saturday.

Many veteran scouts and coaches rate the McKeesport ace as the best back in this section and the record backs up their belief.

Can Run and Pass
Out of 30 touchdowns scored by the Tigers this season, Paterra has either run or passed for 22 of them. Paterra has carried the ball 74 times from scrimmage and gained 578 yards, an average of 97 yards per attempt. The strong armed lad has tossed 97 forwards and completed 47 for 876 yards.

He's a great team player who operates with finesse and coolness while under the greatest pressure. Many of his passes have been the long heave variety designed to add six-points on one play. He has also turned in long runs when McKeesport needed the yardage most.

Alternates Position
Paterra operates at quarterback and halfback. His alternate at the same two positions is Jim Stovlak.

He is a hard-running, fast and powerful runner. He ran the hurdles plus the 100-yard dash for the McKeesport track team last spring and expects to play basketball this winter.

The McKeesport ace is a senior who stands 5-11 and weighs about 130 pounds. He took over his first-string quarterback duties last season and gave evidence that he was going to be a serious threat in his senior year.

Coach Duke Weigle has used the likeable boy in the halfback and quarterback slot so often that he has become a fixture.

Designs Defense
New Castle's junior varsity did not come up with a Paterra in last week's practice session but Coach George Bender's undefeated lads practiced McKeesport plays to run against the varsity this week.

Coach Bridenbaugh cancelled Friday's practice because of the bad weather but plans to hold five long drills, including some scrimmage, this week. The veteran mentor of the locals plans to cook up a few plays as yet unused by the Canes in games. Tops, however, on the practice agenda will be designing a defense to stop Paterra and his talented backfield buddies.

New Castle's chances of winning its seventh WPIAL championship and second in a row may well depend on the methods used to stop Paterra.

That he could better utilize his running, passing and ball handling talents.

Titans Drop Finale To St. Vincent 34-0

St. Vincent College's undefeated and untied Bearcats defeated Westminster College 34-0 Saturday as the two teams ended their current grid season.

The Titans will store away their football togs this week and come forth in new uniforms on Dec. 7, when the Towering Titan basketball team takes the floor in New Westminster for the opening game of the season against Gustavus Adolphus College.

In Saturday's grid game at Latrobe, St. Vincent lived up to its reputation of being one of the country's leading defensive teams. The Titans were able to pick up only 37 yards net in their ground attack.

Only One Threat
Westminster threatened once during the game when quarterback Carl Barthelison stood on the middle field stripe and passed to end Fred Evanoff who carried the ball to the St. Vincent 26. The ball was worked down to the six yard line where a fumble and a penalty interrupted the drive and the Bearcats took over on downs.

Halfback Vince Sundry scored two of the Bearcat touchdowns, one on a 32 yard run and the other on a six yard plunge through center. Frank Martin ran for one score and Madar ran 20 yards for another. The final tally was made on an eight yard pass from George Kocerka to Paul Kmetz in the end zone. Jack Heimbecker kicked four extra points from placement.

New Castle Rifle Club Meets Tonight

New Castle Rifle club meets the Evans City Rifle club tonight at the Army range.

The local club was defeated in the opening match by Beaver Valley while the visitors have not had a match as yet.

Morellas Plan Strong Quintet

Secure Services Of Paul Minner, And Chuck Tanner, Well Known Baseball Stars

Frank "Fats" Morella, well known East Side business man, is planning a powerful basketball team this winter, he revealed today. Last year the Morellas established the sensational record of 17 wins and only two losses.

Nickie Ross, well known local star and floor official, has been secured as coach of the 1949-50 Morella All-Stars.

Paul Minner Signed
One of the outstanding stars signed by Morella is Paul Minner, former New Wilmington High floor great and now the property of the Chicago Cubs, a former Brooklyn Dodger pitcher. Minner towers 6 feet 4 inches and is a well recognized floor luminary.

Another well known star is Charley Tanner, former Shenango High great, and now the property of the Boston Braves, having played at Denver last summer, where he batted .354. John "Rags" Gennock, former New Castle High and Pitt star, now assistant coach at Ursuline High in Youngstown; Fred Wimer, former New Castle High and Salem college star; Fran Pitzer, Bob Pitzer, "Huck" McGary, Dick Hamilton, Eddie Nahas, Cash Kozela, McKean, former Ohio State star, Tom Clarke, Vinnie Kelley and others will also be in the Morella lineup.

Open Season Tonight
The Morellas will open the season tonight at the Y in a league game meeting the B. & O. Five at 7 o'clock.

The Morellas are going to make an effort to grab the city-county title this year, and have one of the most potent lineups to be found anywhere. The All-Stars are planning to bring a number of outstanding attractions to New Castle this winter, owner Frank Morella stated.

Lakers Defeat Indians 121-95

(By International News Service)

The Minneapolis Lakers held the all time professional basketball scoring record today following their 121-95 romp over the Indianapolis Indians in the National Basketball Association.

The Fort Wayne Pistons moved into the lead in the red-hot central division by tripping the Boston Celtics, 99-89. The Rochester Royals dropped into second place by losing to the St. Louis Bombers, 95-74.

Denver Loses Again
The Syracuse Nationals widened their eastern division lead over the idle Washington Capitals by trouncing the hapless Denver Nuggets, 102-76. Denver has now lost 12 games without a win and is deeply mired in last place in the western division.

In the other NBA games, the Waterloo Hawks belted the Tri-City Black Hawks 75-62, and the Baltimore Bullets nosed out the Sheboygan Red Skins, 97-92.

Boston visits the Anderson Duffy Packers, Denver meets Syracuse in Syracuse, and Waterloo will try to hold Minneapolis down at Milwaukee in tonight's fray.

Veeck To Sell Indians Today

Syndicate Will Pay About $2,200,000 For Indians, Ryan Heads New Owners

CLEVELAND, Nov. 21.—(INS)—Bill Veeck, Cleveland's master showman, set the stage today for a ceremony which is expected to witness his departure as owner of the Cleveland Indians in favor of Ellis W. Ryan, head of a syndicate of businessmen.

Veeck last night invited Cleveland sports writers to attend a meeting at the stadium office at 11 a. m. CST today, presumably to announce the sale of the ball club to Ryan and his group. The sale would end many months of dickering in baseball circles.

Veeck Makes Money
Veeck's sale price is believed to be nearly $2,200,000, or about $800,000 more than Veeck paid for the club when he purchased it from Alva Bradley in 1946.

Ryan, a baseball-minded insurance man, represents a group of Clevelanders. They include: Donald W. Hornbeck, a lawyer, Guy Waters, president of the Midwest Forge Co.; Jack John, an associate of Ryan in the W. F. Ryan Insurance Co.; George Medinger, director of the Fostoria Pressed Steel Co.; Nate Dolin, box office manager of the Cleveland Arena; and Harry Small, vice president of the Bank of Ohio.

The T-formation offers more excitement, generally, than the other offensives, but it has its drawbacks. You need a smart, sure-handed quarterback to run the system, and he must have adequate assistance or the thing flies apart.

Penn State's hard-hitting full-back, Francis Rogel, of North Braddock, is good for nearly four yards every time he hits the line. In nearly 400 carries since 1947, his average gain has topped 3.9 yards per try.

SPORT SHORTS

Mr. Mack has said that his son, Earle, will succeed him, but retention of Dykes as a coach was seen in some quarters as indicative that the one-time third baseman ultimately will manage the A's.

Only the Chicago Hornets and Los Angeles Dons of the All-America Conference and their Pittsburgh Steelers, of the National league, follow the old wingback ways of doing things.

Browns Wallop Yanks 31 To 0

(By International News Service)
Otto Graham and Mac Speedie are two good reasons why the Cleveland Browns are the perennial champions of the All-America football conference.

Graham, the wizard of the forward pass, and Speedie, his favorite receiver, combined their talents to set up all the Browns' touchdowns yesterday as Cleveland trounced the New York Yankees, 31 to 0, to keep atop the AAC.

Buffalo Wins
Brown Livingstone's 80-yard touchdown run highlighted the Buffalo Bills' 10-0 victory over the Chicago Hornets. The Los Angeles Dons downed the Baltimore Colts, 21 to 10.

In the National Football league, the Detroit Lions, who have dropped seven games this season, upset the New York Giants, 45 to 21.

Steelers Top Packers
The Philadelphia Eagles, well on their way to their third consecutive eastern division title, fattened up on the lowly New York Bulldogs and waltzed to a 42 to 0 triumph.

Johnny Lujack hurled three touchdowns passes and Sid Luckman once as the Chicago Bears beat Washington, 31 to 21.

The western division leading Los Angeles Rams battled to a 28 to 28 tie with the Chicago Cardinals and the Pittsburgh Steelers turned back the Green Bay Packers, 30 to 7.

Mohawks-Barons Play Deadlock

(By International News Service)
The Cincinnati Mohawks may be the American Hockey league's "cellar team," but whenever they meet the Western division's pace-setting Barons they sure don't play like it.

The Barons, who picked up two more points Saturday night in their victory over the Providence Reds, were tied by the Mohawks 4-4 last night in Cincinnati.

Extend Streak
The Mohawks have won only three games this season, while last night's game extended Cleveland's undefeated string to 10. The only games the Barons didn't win during this period were two deadlock matches with the Cincinnati team.

The New Haven Ramblers and the Indianapolis Capitals also battled to a 2-2 tie Sunday night. The Ramblers, who have 21 points are only one point behind the Providence Reds in the Eastern division.

The Reds who are leading their division defeated Hershey last night, 9-4. Buffalo beat Springfield, 4-2.

A steam engine was first used to operate the bellows in an English blast furnace in 1775.

Irregular Price Changes Rule In General Market Trading Today

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(INS)—The stock market was slowed down by profit-taking today following four consecutive sessions of advance, and irregular price changes were the rule in the general list.

Among old-line industrials, DuPont was off 1/4 at 63 3/4; General Electric off 1/4 at 40; Union Carbide off 1/4 at 42 1/2; General Motors off 1/4 at 66 1/2; Bethlehem Steel unchanged at 30 1/4; and Westinghouse off 1/4 at 28 1/4.

Oils were spotty, with Ohio off 1/4 at 28 1/2; Standard of New Jersey unchanged at 69 1/4; and Socony Vacuum off 1/4 at 16 3/4.

Kansas City Southern was a bright spot in a laggardly rail list, advancing 1/4 point to a new high at 45 3/4. Southern Railway, Illinois Central and Rock Island were slightly lower.

The bond market ruled firm with selected rail issues higher.

Oak Street Group Visits Schools Of Youngstown Area

Group Of Parents And Teachers Visit New, Modern Schools Of Youngstown

Interest in schools and education prompted a group of parents and teachers of the Oak Street school to journey to Youngstown, O., to visit two modern schools.

The first school viewed was the Covington school, built in 1940. Here they were conducted through the building by the principal, Mr. Dunn. It is a three-story building with steel bannisters, tile and composition floors, making it almost completely fireproof. Walls are painted in pastel shades.

Bulletin boards are as large as regular black-boards, and here work is displayed or any articles pertaining to their subjects are posted. The air-conditioning and heating system is so arranged that a complete change of air can be obtained in five minutes.

Special Classes

One of the most outstanding features was a special class for retarded children. This class is in three groups: beginners, primary taught in each group until ready for the next group or back to his original class. Another feature admired was the craft room. Here there could be found needle-craft, block printing, use of looms, equipment for cooking, bed making, making of puppets and plaster-of-paris work. These crafts are available to all students, yet the highest grade taught is the sixth.

The next school to be seen was the Wycliffe school. With Mr. Smell, principal. This was built in 1948 and is the latest in modern school construction.

A one-story building, it has a flat roof, so that another floor may be added. Here the parents and teachers viewed green glass set in cork, which is used in place of regular blackboards. Yellow chalk is used and the result is surprising compared to the regular black and white used in most schools.

Each of the first and second grade rooms is equipped with sink and running water. A loud speaker system is being installed in each room, whereby announcements can be made throughout the school.

Fire Drills

When fire-drills are held the building is completely empty in 40 seconds and over 300 children occupy the building.

In both schools project area is provided in each room. Here projects are worked out in accordance with the subject being taught. Both schools have libraries and the children act as librarians.

Those who made the trip were Mrs. G. Book, Mrs. M. White, Mrs. D. Rice, Mrs. C. Shaffer, Mrs. J. McKee, Mrs. C. Shumate, Mrs. J. Leasure, Mrs. A. Shaffer, Mrs. H. Haltman, Mrs. R. Loy and Mrs. H. Ridgley. Teachers who accompanied the group were Miss Gail Cooper and Miss Helen Kinkson. Mrs. Stephen Kleckner, newly-elected to the school board, was with the group.
